Title: Notification of SIMCom Product

---

Dear SIMCom Customers ,

First of all, we would like to thank you sincerely for your great support in using our products, SIM300 series.

Since the product launch date, SIM300 series have been maintained in production for over six years. As the market competition becomes more and more fierce, in order to provide customers with more competitive products, last year we launched SIM900 series products. This series products have been used in large scale, and have been widely praised by our customers.

At this point, the SIM300 series will also be phased out, and we kindly hope our customers switch to using SIM900 series and we will offer our greater supports.

The phase-out products are as follows,

- SIM305/345
- SIM548C

The phase out schedule is as follows,

- last order acceptance date: June 30th, 2011
